Human Concerns Announcements

Words from Martin Luther King, Jr. I refuse to accept the view that mankind is so tragically bound to the starless midnight of racism and war that the bright daybreak of peace and brotherhood can never become a reality... I believe that unarmed truth and unconditional love will have the final word.

National Day of Healing - January 17, 2017: With racial divisiveness rising across America, the W.K. Kellogg Foundation (WKKF), together with more than 130 organizations is committed to an emerging Truth, Racial Healing & Transformation (TRHT) enterprise. They are calling for a National Day of Healing on January 17, 2017. The goal is to spur efforts to heal the wounds created by racial, ethnic and religious bias and to build an equitable and just society in which all children thrive. January 17, which follows the Martin Luther King holiday, is an opportunity to broaden and deepen our personal and joint commitment. To be part of this national movement you can share your story of healing on the www.healingrva.org blog site and come to Richmond Hill, 2209 E. Grace Street on January 17 at 7:30 pm for a special interfaith gathering to honor our stories and journey together.

Fair Trade Coffee, Tea and Chocolate Sales. The weekend of January 21/22 we will be offering an assortment of coffee, tea, hot cocoa, and chocolate bars. We have three kinds of hot chocolates and Java Drops are back. Stop by in the commons after Mass to see the wide assortment being offered. Your purchase helps to provide assistance to community members seeking our financial assistance while helping the farmers in third world countries make a better living. Assistance in selling after Masses is appreciated. If you are interested in volunteering 15 minutes of your time once a month contact Paul Amrhein paul@saintbridgetchurch.org or 525-7902.

January Sale. Spend $15 and get a free chocolate bar this month.

A Word About the Dates on Our Coffee: If you buy St. Bridget Coffee at our fair trade sales it is likely you will find a date on the bag. This date is not the sell by date but rather the roast date. This is rarely placed on coffee except when you buy coffee at a coffee roaster. The coffee you buy in the store and even at Starbucks has likely been roasted months (and perhaps many months) ago by the time it ends up in your home.

CARITAS is Coming! February 25th through March 4th. We will be collecting donations and sign-ups are underway.

You can sign up on line at our website – preferred method as it is much easier for the various volunteer leaders who have to know what is happening, We will also have signups in the commons again for those who do not do computers. Thank you for your support of this important ministry year after year!
