My dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

“Mercy Changes the World!”

On World Mission Sunday, October 23, Pope Francis invites each of us to be part of that change for our world of great need, calls us to announce the mercy of God, “the beating heart of the Gospel” (Misericordiae Vultus, 12).

On this 90th World Mission Sunday, our diocesan family joins our brothers and sisters around the world who will gather at the Lord’s Table to celebrate, with great joy, our common vocation as missionaries. Our prayers and financial help, through the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, support the work of the Mission Church, its witness to Christ and service to the poor.

“Let us not close our hearts within our on particular concerns, but let us open them to all of humanity.”
- Message for World Mission Sunday, 2016

I echo these words of our Holy Father, asking you to open your hearts as you connect on World Mission Sunday with every corner of the globe... with the Americas, where catechists travel to remote areas to bring the Good News of God’s great love to families; with Europe, where new churches are being built to welcome faith communities, renewed after years of persecution; with Asia, where six million children receive an education from Religious Sisters in some 16,000 Church-run elementary schools; with the Pacific Islands, where 1,000 young men are preparing for the priesthood, to bring the Lord’s healing hope and peace to those in need; with Africa, where those who are sick are provided with loving care at 6,400 Catholic hospitals and small clinics.

You can also continue this connection with the Missions all year long, through MISSIO, online at missio.org or on your phone.

Grateful always for your generosity of spirit and heart, and confident of your missionary commitment to share the joy of the Gospel and help the poor, I pray for blessings for you and your families!

Faithfully yours in the Lord,
Most Rev. Francis X. DiLorenzo

Human Concerns Announcements

Thank you. For your support of the Human Concerns ministries in last week's second collection. Your generosity helps us to respond to parishioners and other members of our community in financial crisis.

Little Sisters of the Poor – Sugar Drive: The Little Sisters of the Poor who run St. Joseph's Home for the aged are always looking for creative ways to raise the funds they need to care for the elderly entrusted to their care. St. Bridget will host a sugar drive to help them out. Please bring your sugar in the weekend of October 22/23 and leave it in the corner where we collect food for Catholic Charities. With the holidays coming, they can use a lot of sugar to bake some cookies and make some hot chocolate to keep their cares in good cheer.

A Month of Remembrance - Once again we will display pictures, of our parishioners who have been called home to God this past year. The display will be in the commons from November 1 -30. If you would like to participate in this event we would ask you to either drop off at our office or mail a framed picture of your loved one to arrive by October 28. Please tape a piece of paper on the back of the frame with your loved one's name, birth to this world and birth to eternal life dates, your name, address and phone number printed on it. Your loved one along with all the deceased of our community will be remembered in our prayers during that time. You may pick up your picture from the display the weekend of November 26 or from the parish office after that date.

All Souls Evening Prayer: To begin our month of remembrance we invite you, your family and friends to take part in an "All Souls Evening Prayer" liturgy as we remember all parishioners who have died, and especially those who died in the last year. That liturgy will take place this year on Wednesday, November 2 at 7:30 PM, in the church. The choirs of St. Bridget will lead the music of the liturgy, accompanied by organ & strings. The names of those who were buried from St. Bridget over the past November through October this year will be read aloud. If your loved one passed to eternal life during the past year but was not buried at St. Bridget please submit the name Paul Amrhein at 525-7902 or paul@saintbridgetchurch.org by October 27.

Holidays, Healing and Hope: A day for those who have lost a loved one. It can be tough to handle the emotions associated with the loss of a loved one any time, but it's especially difficult to do so during the holidays. You may feel trapped between the weight of strong feelings and the reluctance of those around you to discuss the loss. This session will offer a special time and sacred space to face those challenges and draw closer to peace. Please join with others who have lost a loved one for Holidays, Healing and Hope, a session with Sr. Kathy Persson OSB, LCSW and coauthor of Good Mourning. At St. Bridget, on November 19 from 9 a.m. till 12:30. Lunch will be included as well as a special remembrance. For a registration form due back November 2 contact Paul Amrhein at 525-7902 or paul@saintbridgetchurch.org.
