Dear Parishioners,

Parish Christian Formation

Our parish pastoral council is undertaking a thorough review of Christian Formation in our parish. To that end they have established a committee headed by council member Ann Slough. This committee will examine Church documents concerning Christian Formation in parishes, assess current programs, develop a comprehensive vision for our parish, write a job description, search and hire.

This work will take place with an awareness of the parish liturgy committee's Real Presence efforts and our New Evangelization Team's vision for our parish.

Parish Evangelization

I would like our parish family to engage more with the Holy Father's call for a new evangelization. To that end, we have a New Evangelization Team who report to the Parish Pastoral Council. We will also begin work with a consultant who will guide us in that good work.

Evangelization is not a mystery. It is sharing the Good News that Jesus Christ is Our Lord and Savior. Through life and death, sin and grace, suffering and joy, and even after the elections Jesus Christ is King.

We share that Good News according to our personality and gifts. We share the Good News wherever God puts us every day and we do the best we can with what we've got.

Some evangelists witness by preaching or writing. Some evangelists witness to the Lord by their example --- just as we are, His humble servants excited to live with Him and to share with others His way, the way that works.

New Rectory Resident

It is a pleasure for me to welcome as a resident in our rectory Father Sunil of the Syro Malabar Catholic Church. Father Sunil is the pastor of Richmond's Syro Malabar parish of about 50 families. They have no church nor rectory.

They celebrate Sunday Masses on Sunday afternoons at nearby St. Benedict Church and I am happy to welcome Father Sunil to the rectory. Father Sunil has no parish duties here.

The Syro Malabar Church is one of twenty two Oriental Churches in full communion with Rome. They have more than four million members and trace their beginnings to the journey of St. Thomas the Apostle to south west India.

Sincerely in Christ,

St. Brigid Parish 2017 Annual Financial Stewardship Appeal is underway, and parishioners are quickly stepping up to support our church! The Stewardship Appeal information and pledge card are included in our parish Annual Report mailed to all parishioners. Your compassionate spirit of giving will continue to enable St. Brigid parish to fulfill the mission of our Catholic faith tradition. Please prayerfully consider your pledge and respond promptly. How to pledge: Complete and return your pledge card in the mail or collection basket. Or, you may submit your online pledge form through www.saintbridgetchurch.org/pledge. You can set your E-Giving account to make your contribution automatically each week or use weekly offertory envelopes to fulfill your pledged contribution at Mass each week. Thank you for sharing your many gifts of time, talent, and treasure!

"Jesus asks us also to forgive and to give. To be instruments of mercy because it was we who first received mercy from God. To be generous with others, knowing that God showers his goodness upon us with immense generosity." — Pope Francis, Jubilee Year of Mercy

Holidays, Healing and Hope: A day for those who have lost a loved one. It can be tough to handle the emotions associated with the loss of a loved one any time, but it's especially difficult to do so during the holidays. You may feel trapped between the weight of strong feelings and the reluctance of those around you to discuss the loss. This session will offer a special time and sacred space to face those challenges and draw closer to peace. Please join with others who have lost a loved one for Holidays, Healing and Hope, a session with Sr. Kathy Persson OSB, LCSW and coauthor of Good Mourning. At Saint Bridget, on November 19 from 9 a.m. till 12:30. Lunch will be included as well as a special remembrance. For a registration form which is due back November 2 contact Paul Amrhein at 525-7902 or paul@saintbridgetchurch.org.

Advent is Coming - Prepare yourself and family for the coming of Jesus this Christmas season by making the Advent season a time of preparation and reflection. Beginning the weekend of November 12/13 we will have resources available in the commons that you can take home to help you and your family in reflecting on the beautiful scripture passages of the season and to carry on or perhaps begin new traditions in your household – the domestic church. In this time of limited resources please take only what you need and use what you take. Take time to have a family meeting before Advent starts to discuss what special activities you will do to make Advent meaningful. If you don't take that time you know what will happen – nothing. Your spiritual preparation for Christmas will make the season all the more meaningful.

Do you know someone with a prolonged illness? Perhaps you have a member of your family who is in a long term care facility or homebound. Please let us know if they would like a BeFriender Minister and/or someone to bring them communion. Our faith calls us to love one another. We have ministers ready to bring the care and concern of our faith community to your loved one. Call Paul Amrhein at 525-7902 or paul@saintbridgetchurch.org
