FEAST DAYS by Franciscan Media

12th, Saint John of Sahagun (d. 1479)
13th, Saint Anthony of Padua (d. 1231)
14th, Saint Methodius I, (d. 847)
15th, Saint Germaine Cousin (d. 1601)
16th, Saint John Francis Regis (d. 1640)
17th, Saint Albert Chmielowski (d. 1916)
18th, Saint Gregory Barbarigo (d. 1697)

Saint Albert

Born near Kraków in a wealthy family, his left leg was amputated after fighting in the revolt of 1864. A talent for painting led to studies in Warsaw, Munich, and Paris but he returned to Kraków and became a Secular Franciscan. In 1888, when he founded the Brothers of the Third Order of Saint Francis, Servants to the Poor, he took the name Albert. They worked primarily with the homeless, depending completely on alms while serving the needy regardless of age, religion, or politics. A community of Albertine sisters was established later. Reflecting on his own priestly vocation, Pope John Paul II wrote in 1996 that Brother Albert had played a role in its formation "because I found in him a real spiritual support and example in leaving behind the world of art, literature, and the theater, and in making the radical choice of a vocation to the priesthood."

CHALLENGE OF THE WEEK by Dan Harms

One of the beautiful aspects of our faith is that while it is simple enough for a child to comprehend, it is underpinned by a theology that one could spend a lifetime studying and never exhaust.

Case in point: The Trinity. This weekend's solemnity celebrates the Trinitarian nature of God. One God in three persons: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. I'm not sure there is anything in our faith that is as simple and at the same time incomprehensible.

According to legend, St. Patrick explained the Trinity using a shamrock—three leaves, yet one clover. However, analogies are imperfect. Leaves can be separated and plucked apart, God is indivisible.

Many analogies come close to describing God, but none fully articulate the fullness of who God is – that's for us to experience, discover, and share with each other.

This week's challenge is to share with each other - talk about your faith.

I realize this is scary, no one wants to say the wrong thing; theology and Church teaching can be complicated. For many of us, talking about faith is a tremendously vulnerable thing to do. After 17 years of ministry I'm well acquainted with looks of absolute fear when I ask someone to share their faith experience.

Theology can be complicated and Some of us don't feel like we know enough. Many of us actually know a lot about faith, but have a hard time articulating it. The truth is, you likely know a lot more about our faith than you realize. The more we talk about faith, the easier it is to develop a vocabulary around it. Talking about our own experience of faith can help lead others closer to God.

In the coming months we look forward to offering opportunities to help you in this challenge. Do not be afraid. We praying for you!

To learn more about the Trinity (or what the Church teaches generally) check out the Catechism of the Catholic Church paragraphs 253-256.

PARADISE

FROM FRONT COVER

In this scene representing Paradise, the Holy Trinity are depicted. Christ (left), the Holy Spirit depicted as a dove, and God the Father (right) are surrounded by the symbols of the Evangelists and flanked by the Virgin and Saint John the Baptist. The foreground figures represent (left) the Doctors of the Church, (center) Saint George, and (right) Saint Christopher. It is likely that the man looking out from bottom left may be a portrait of the original (unidentified) patron.

This week we return to the liturgical season of Ordinary Time. This Sunday and next Sunday, however, are designated as Solemnities, special days that call our attention to central mysteries of our faith. Today, on the first Sunday after Pentecost, we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity. This feast invites us to consider what we believe about God, who has revealed himself to us in the Trinity—one God in three persons. The verses of today's Gospel come near the end of Jesus' long discourse at the Last Supper. In the early part of this discourse, as we saw last week on Pentecost, Jesus offers assurances to the disciples. Even though he must leave the disciples, he tells them that they will have a future because of the help he will send them in the Holy Spirit. In this section he focuses more on the shape of the future, which will include Jesus' victory over the world that they will share in. The disciples of Jesus cannot know the future. They can only know that, whatever shape the future takes, they will not have to face it alone. They have the Spirit of Truth, who will continue to provide the teaching of Jesus in the future. Reading this passage on Trinity Sunday reinforces our understanding of the unity shared by the members of the Trinity. Although the idea of one God in three persons remains a mystery, we have the assurance that, as Jesus and the Father share all, Jesus and the Spirit share all.

Corpus Christi Eucharistic Processions

Eucharistic Processions

June 19th, Join us after the 9 and 11 a.m. Masses for Eucharistic Processions! The 9 a.m. procession will go around the Church and Elementary School Campus, the 11 a.m. procession will go around the block surrounding the parish. Both processions will conclude back at the parish with prayer and reposition of the Blessed Sacrament. These processions are a powerful witness to the real presence of Christ in the Eucharist.

Welcome to Saint Bridget!

David Urlwin

Seminarian in the Diocese of Richmond

David will be with us for the summer, in the fall he will return to his studies at Mount Saint Mary's Seminary

Welcome our Seminarian!

David Urlwin is in his second year of theological studies at Mount Saint Mary University Seminary. A seminarian for the Diocese of Richmond, he was born and raised in Northern Virginia and through his Catholic Campus Ministry experiences at James Madison University fell in love with the Diocese of Richmond. After much prayer and discernment, David has answered the call to begin studies for religious orders. This summer he will be helping with a variety of ministries and events at the parish and we are excited to have him here! Welcome!

Scholarship Winner

Congratulations to Saint Bridget Middle School graduate Michael "Mick" Drew! He will be heading off to Benedictine Prep next fall and we pray for his success.

The merit based scholarship was presented by Knights of Columbus Scholarship Chair, Anthony Mehfood, and Grand Knight, Bruce Slough.
